Body Language Photo & Video Analysis

Your photos and videos, online or offline, in magazines, on websites, social media, books and all kind of publications are important to you, however, also to me!

Did you ever hear people telling you they're busy, to call them back, not interested, no time, etc.. Ever experienced the pain of getting a no, being rejected or not being good enough?

Believe it or not, been there, done that, until I discovered Body Language!

Your photos and videos should be made in a transferable and measurable way so that you can use them anywhere, be it in magazines, on YouTube and various social media. People will immediately recognize you for your leadership that you express through the right attitudes and gestures.

In the end, you would love to pull people towards you instead of pushing them away from you. As you own that right, it's your choice you can make today. The analyses that I'll process will monetize your message like never before.

I dedicated 3 decades to become the world's expert to "Master Business Anatomy" in learning and teaching those secrets and knowledge. Also do I know how to analyze and process verbal & non-verbal communication in business in order for you to transform and breakthrough to higher levels of success.

What is the outcome for you?

- Attract people and businesses
- Attract new clients, companies, model agencies, film producers

Colors:

- Put the darkest colors on the pants / shorts.
- The strongest or brightest colors will be ideal for your tops.
- To have a perfect balance, is to work with max. 3 colors.
- It is advisable to combine two strong colors with a basic color.

Accessories:

- As neutral as possible, no exaggerated jewels or make-up.

The shoot:

- Setting of the scene, background.
- The focus should stay on you, not the background.
- Lightning
